

EMPLOYEE SERVICES PROVIDED BY TESTING SECTION

- I. Test administration and processing in facilitation of placement and career decisions.
 - A. PETB A test of abilities, aptitude, temperment, work attitudes, vocational interests, and personality administered to professional employees.
 - B. DAT A test battery similar to the PETB (except for the ability measures) administered to employees with less than 3 years of college and some nonprofessionals with a non-college degree.
 - C. BWP Three scales of the PETB used to predict performance on the Brandon Wolfe test of computer programming aptitude.
 - D. BW The Brandon Wolfe test is a computer programming aptitude.
 - E. GATB Given to employees in support of the P&PD and NPIC printing and photography apprenticeship programs. Measures general aptitude and manual dexterity.
 - F. CT Assessment packet administered to employees applying to the CT program.
- II. Feedback to employees on the PETB and DAT results. Vocational counseling. Acting as a neutral sounding board for problems and frustrations. Referrals to employee programs and training.
- III. Ongoing contact with managers and personnel officers concerning test results and interpretations.
- IV. Coordination with EEO handicap program in matters concerning testing of handicapped employees.
- V. Scoring and reporting of various personality measures in support of OTE courses.

STAT

Approved For Release 2003/11/06 : CIA-RDP00-01458R000100140007-0

Next 2 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2003/11/06 : CIA-RDP00-01458R000100140007-0